

St. Andrews United (Formerly Presbyterian) Cemetery

St. Andrews St, Chatham, N.B.

This Cemetery was first transcribed by Mrs. Beaumont Williston and Louise Manny in 1938 and may not be complete. (Missing since 1938) appears by some names with missing stones and means these stones were here in 1938.

The bold lettering (NBGS) following the bold lettering means that this information can be found in “Cemeteries of the Parish of Chatham (Volume II of II – Protestant) Northumberland County Province of Canada produced by The NB Genealogical Society Miramichi Branch 2005 (pages 186 – 195).

The Asterisk * before the name denotes that this person was listed by Cleadie B. Barnett in Generations Issue # 54 Winter of 1992 Page 63 titled Cemetery Inscription for St. Andrew’s United (Formerly Presbyterian) Cemetery, St. Andrew’s Street, Chatham, N.B. The bold wording is what she recorded for each stone.

If there is a (Find A Grave) note behind the name it means that David L. Underhill took a picture of this stone in 2017 before he entered it on Find a Grave. Com. If (No Stone) appears behind the name it means that no stone could be located for the person, but that a stone may have been there in earlier research or the burial was noted in Newspaper obituaries.

*Armstrong, Thomas, d. 30 July 1912 age 77 yrs. (No stone) – taken from McDonald’s Funeral Home Records). Thomas was born about 1836 (1851 Northumberland County Census) in Northumberland Co.,N.B. The son of Justus Jasper Armstrong b. 1796 and Mary McIntyre b.1795 both from Irongray Parish, Kirkcudbrightshire, Scotland. On the 2nd of Dec. 1869, The Union Advocate carried the following: “Died at his residence, Chatham, 3rd Nov. Jasper Armstrong, age 73, native of Parish of Irongray, Kirkcudbrightshire, Scotland. He came to the Miramichi in 1830.” According to the 1851 Census of Northumberland County, Jasper came to Chatham in 1832 and Mary Ann in 1833 with three young children, David, Jane, and Agnes. Margaret was born 1835 and Thomas 1836.

Bain, Ann w/o Richard Bain

Bain, Belinda – d. 1844 Age 1yr. 5 mos. (Probably a daughter of Hugh Fraser Bain and Ann Jamison.) (NBGS) (Find A Grave)

*Bain, John d. 25 Mar. 1865 aged 28yrs; *Robert Bain d. 2 Aug. 1883(1889) aged 42 yrs. (NBGS) (Find A Grave) On 17th. of April 1865, The Colonial Farmer of Fredericton carried the following: “Died at Chatham (North. Co.) 25th March, John Bain, age 28.” John Bain was a brother of Robert Bain and both were sons of Hugh Fraser Bain. Robert Bain was born 1847 in Chatham the son of Hugh Frazer Bain b. 1815 in Ayrshire, Scotland and Ann Jamison b. 1816, Scotland. According to Dictionary of Miramichi Biography by Willis Hamilton, Hugh Bain and Ann Jamison were married at Craigie by Kilmarnock, in Ayrshire, in 1842. On the 16th. of March 1861, The Gleaner and Northumberland Schediasma carried the following: “Died Chatham (North. Co.), Ann w/o Hugh Bain, Esq., age 45. Funeral Monday at 3 o’clock.” Hugh Bain was a blacksmith, foundry and sawmill owner, and general merchant and a year after the death of Ann Jamison, he married Agnes Goodfellow. On the 17th Feb. 1870, The Union Advocate carried the following: “Died Chatham (North. Co.) Thursday 17th. Inst., Hugh Bain, Esq. age 50.”” No Headstone has been found and they both may be buried in St. Andrews Cemetery. After his father’s death, Robert operated the Bain store for a number of years. On the 9th of Aug. 1889, The Saint John Daily Telegraph carried the following obituary: “Robert Bain who for a number of years carried on a large general business in Chatham, Northumberland Co. N.B. died of consumption, Friday evening. In the neighboring county of Gloucester for many years he was extensively engaged in preserving and tinning of lobsters. Mr. Bain was unmarried, but leaves behind him one brother and two sisters. The funeral on Monday was largely attended. The internment was in St. Andrews burying Ground. – Chatham ‘Advance’.” (See also the 1851,1861,1871 Census of Chatham and Dictionary of Miramichi Biography).

*Bain, Maggie A, wife of George A. Bain, d. in Denver, Colorado, 9 Jan. 1883 aged 31 yrs. Probably should have been George I. Wilson instead of George A. Bain as the following article in the Newcastle Union Advocate 24 Oct. 1877 reveals: “Married at the residence of Mrs. H. Bain, Thursday eve. 11th. Inst., by Rev. Wm. Wilson, George I. Wilson, merchant and Maggie Bain second daughter of the late Hugh Bain.” There is also the fact that four years after Maggie’s death in Colorado, the following article appears in the Newcastle Union Advocate: “Married at the residence of Robert Bain, Esquire, the bride’s brother, 7th June, by Rev. E. Wallace Waits, B.A., George I. Wilson and Miss Elizabeth Jamison Bain, all of Chatham. Elizabeth was Maggie’s sister and they were both daughters of Hugh Bain and Ann Jamison.

*Beckwith, James. Esq., Acting Collector of Her Majesties Customs, d. 8 Dec. 1815 in the 35th.year of his age; also his infant daughter, *Lydia, aged 3 weeks. (NBGS) (Find A Grave) The following was taken from Dictionary of Miramichi Biography “James Beckwith, acting collector of customs, b. Cornwallis, N.S., 15 Feb. 1779, son of Asa Beckwith and Mary Morton; married Janet Kerr, of Parrsboro, N.S., a native of Ecclefechan, Scotland. He was acting collector of customs in Miramichi in 1814 and until his death a year later, at age thirty – six. There were four young sons and a daughter in the family. His wife died at Berwick, N.S., in 1852, leaving two sons.”

Bell, Thomas E. (1775-1820) (NBGS) (Find A Grave) was the surgeon on board HMS Abergavenny in 1795, when he was 20 years of age. He served on this ship until 1797 and then for a year on HMS Tourterelle. He was listed as a half - pay officer in the naval service in 1801. Later he settled on the Miramichi as a Physician. It was said that he travelled constantly on horseback and by canoe to visit his patients, as far north as Miscou and as far south as Fredericton. Bell is thought to have been the only doctor on the river or in the north of the province until the arrival of Dr. Alexander Key in 1816. After he died in 1820, at age 45, a tombstone with a lengthy Latin inscription was erected to his memory in St. Andrew's Cemetery in Chatham. (See Dictionary of Miramichi Biography)

*Blair, Christian, wife of John McArthur of Sussex Vale, native of Perthshire, Scotland, died 18 Oct. 1843 aged 66 years. (NBGS) (Find A Grave) On the 4th of November 1843 the N.B. Body will be taken to Chatham Monday for burial.” On 11 Sept. 1895, The World at Chatham carried the following: “Saturday Morn., George Blewett, 11 year old s/o George Blewett, engineer of the tug “Lillie” was drowned near Hillard's mill. At the time of the accident the boy, with three other boys, was walking over the booms at Gregory's pond, and it was while attempting to get into a boat he fell into the water. The water was about 3 or 4 feet deep. Had there been anyone present to render assistance the boy could have been easily rescued. His companions became alarmed and ran away. The body was recovered soon afterwards and for nearly an hour Drs. Christie and McCleery exerted themselves in an endeavor to bring back life but without success. An inquest was not considered necessary. The remains will be taken this morning to Chatham for interment. The remains were removed from the railway station to St. Andrew's Cemetery on the arrival of the train. Rev. Joseph McCoy officiated." George Blewett and Ellen McIvor were married 4 Jul. 1877 in Northumberland County (See Northumberland County Early Marriages 1780 – 1887.)
